

Isabel Fortier, Researcher, Research Institute of the McGill University Health Centre and Director of Research and Development for the Public Population Project in Genomics(P3G) Consortium.

Topic: From individual studies to collaborative research. How can we enable data harmonization and integration across studies?

20 February 2012

STUDY BREAK – NO SEMINAR

27 February 2012

George Weisz, Professor, Department Social Studies of Medicine

Topic: Epidemiology and Health-Care Reform in the USA: The National Health Survey of 1935-1936.

---

March

5 March 2012

Erica Moodie, Assistant Professor, McGill Department of Epidemiology, Biostatistics, and Occupational Health.

Topic: Learning about optimal personalized treatment rules from observational data.

12 March 2012

Sherry Olson, Professor, McGill Department of Geography

Topic: Mortality in Montreal in 1880: geographic pathways of contagion

19 March 2012

David Buckeridge

Topic: Evaluation of Disease Control Interventions During the 2009 Influenza A/H1N1 Pandemic in Montreal

26 March 2012

Jennifer Dowd

Topic: Are health inequalities infectious?

---

April

2 April 2012

Lenore Launer

Topic: Epidemiology of brain aging: from hypothesis generation to prevention.

9 April 2012

No Seminar: Easter Monday, university closed