

Drop in this weekend!

This week, the Loebner magnolias show their large, immaculate blossoms and the warmth continues to cause new buds to unfurl.

The white trillium is just about to cover the forest floor. All the while, in Blossom Corner, Canada plum, Ussurian pear and serviceberry should peak this

Where the Wild Things Are

Sunday, May 13, 2018, 10 am - 12 pm

Explore the world of little things: insects, salamanders, frogs and more! Join naturalist Scott Pemberton for some up close encounters with the Arboretum's wildlife! Great fun for the whole family!

Pre-register 514-398-7811 More info

